HUSBAND AND WIFE FIGHT

After locking their two children in a bedroom and fastening all the doors of their fl.t, Antonio Spizz'rri and his wife Anna, of Chicago, went into the darkened parlor yesterday and tried to kill each other. The woman was shot twice and stabbed twice with a stiletto and died before the police arrived. The husband was shot twice and may die. A revolver and a knife were found near the sofa on which the woman lay dead, and another revolver was found beside the husband's body. The disordered room indicated a terrible struggle. Spizzirri turned on his side as the police broke into the room with a sledge hammer and tore a letter which was on the floor by his side into bits before the police could sop him. This letter, when translated from the Italian, may solve the mystery. It is thought that Spizz rri was justous of
